Stop Overpaying For Gas

Through its partnership with OPIS, iExit pulls in daily Unleaded, Mid-Grade, Premium, and Diesel fuel prices across the United States. We compare all of those prices so that we can quickly show you which exits and which cities have the best gas prices.

Third Party Integrations

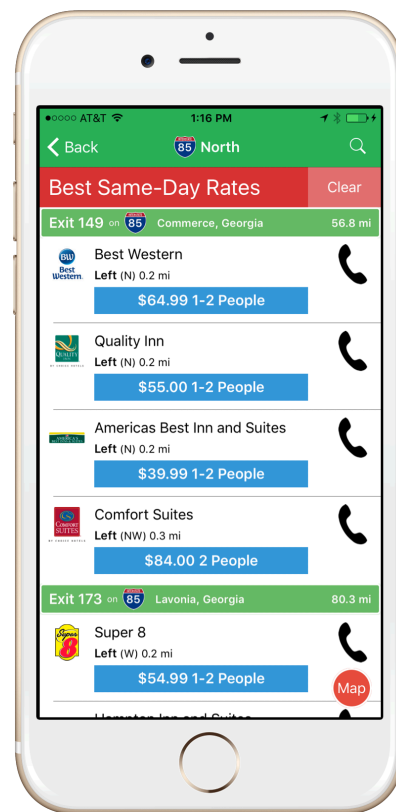

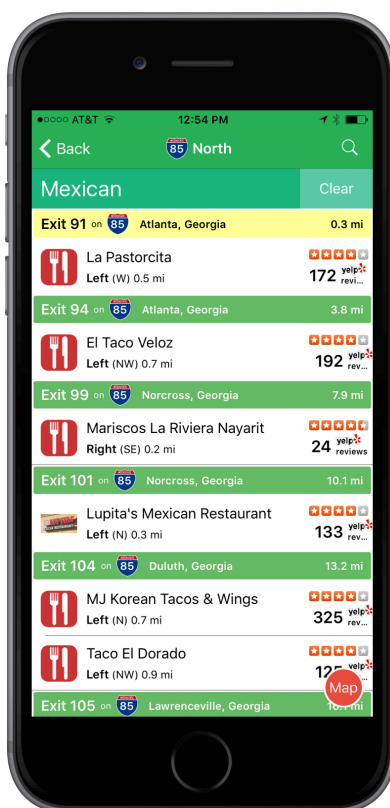

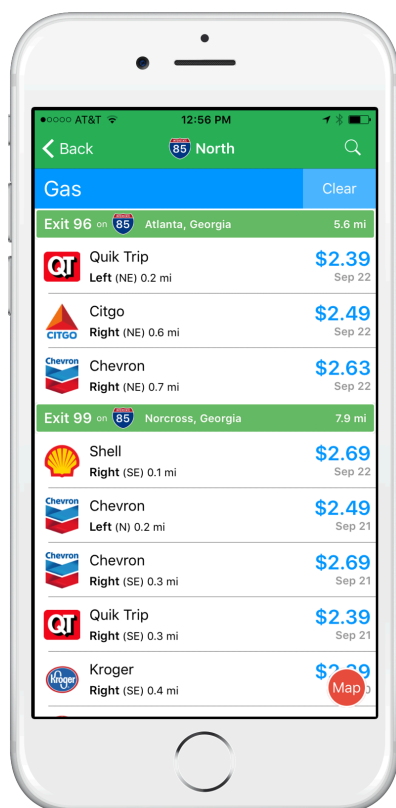

iExit groups OPIS's real-time fuel prices by Interstate exit, making it easy to find the cheapest exit ahead, even 100 miles down the road.

iExit has always been great at helping you find your favorite brands. But now with Yelp, you can discover great new businesses right near exits.

Looking for a hotel tonight? Travel Coupons provides thousands of amazing same-day hotel deals that are cheaper than anything you'll find online.

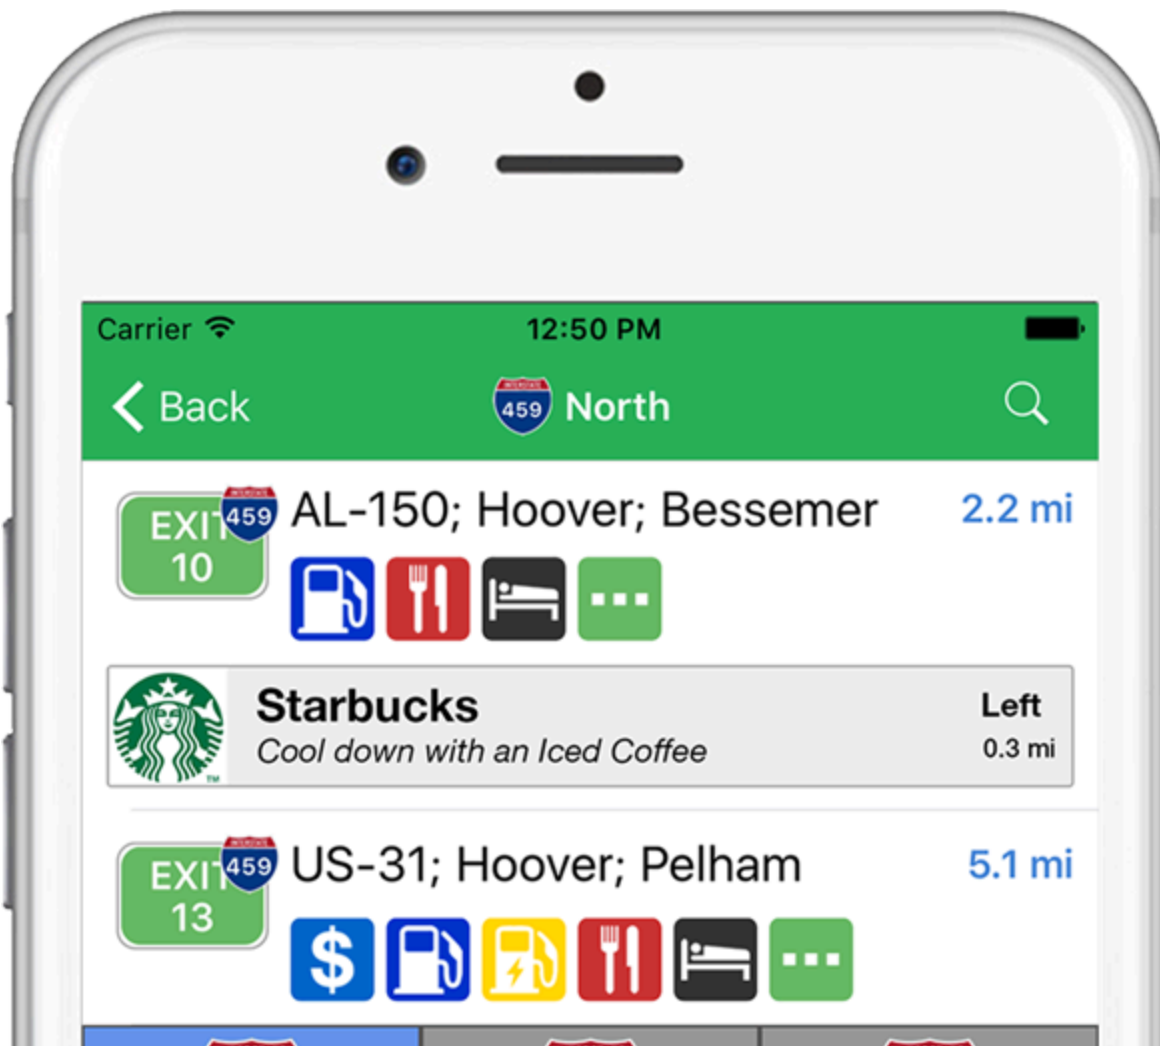

Own a business along the interstate?

iExit provides a modern, affordable, and effective way to advertise to approaching interstate travelers.

We are working with one business per exit (on a first-come, first-serve basis) to become that exit's sponsored business. Exit Sponsorship means getting seen by thousands of approaching interstate travelers who otherwise wouldn't know you exist.
